- 1) The exhibitor is responsible for all the equipment lent by the organizer and is obliged to return it undamaged after the ending of the Conference. Damage on the exposition, installation of the organizer or on the exhibition object where the Conference takes place must be immediately announced by the exhibitor to the organizer, restored or refunded fully to the organizer or the owner of the object.
- 2) The exhibitor is obliged to follow the security prescriptions and instructions of the organizer. The activity of the exposition must not disturb or restrict the normal Conference activities. All promotional activities held beyond the area of own exposition must be agreed in advance with the organizer.
- 3) The organizer has the right to exclude from the participation in the Conference any exhibitor who did not duly cover the participation fee of the exhibitor, and the exhibitor loses any right for reimbursement of fees already paid.
- 4) The organizer decides finally about the placement of the exhibition and takes into consideration the requirements of the exhibitor. Non-acceptance of the requirements of the exhibitor concerning the recommended placement of the exposition must not be a reason for claims from the part of the exhibitor.

- 5) The organizer is not responsible to the exhibitor for any loss, damage or destruction of the exposition or objects and goods exposed there irrespective whether it occurred before, during or after the ending of the Conference.
- 6) In the case of shortcomings in the work and services granted by the organizer, the exhibitor shall complain immediately to a responsible member of the organizer's staff. Otherwise his right becomes extinct.

We hereby inform you that we want to participate at the above Conference, according to the application form, the general regulation's acknowledged conditions and price list which we here accept in this sense.
